

FALCON®

24/25 Series

Heavy duty touch bar exit device

Overview

Robust and aesthetically pleasing, the Falcon 24 Series and 25 Series exit devices provide you a full range of functions and are able to fit narrow and wide stile door types. Falcon is focused on providing you solid products with solid performance at a solid price. The sleek architectural design is perfect for a variety of applications to assure every door opening provides safe egress while also integrating with the overall building design. Combining functionality and design allows you to have confidence that your exit device is built to last and will look great - all at an affordable price.

24 Series

25 Series

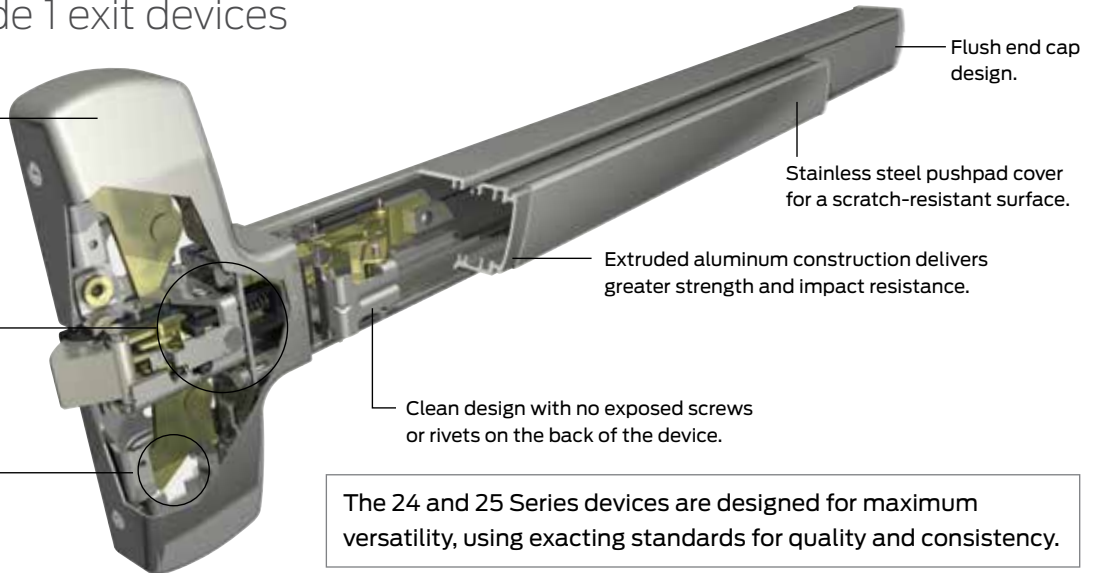

24/25 Series

Heavy duty, Grade 1 exit devices

Streamlined design for clean lines and a more attractive installation.

Patent-pending deadlocking technology ensures reliable security.

One trim input design for maximum versatility.

The 24 and 25 Series devices are designed for maximum versatility, using exacting standards for quality and consistency.

Benefits of the 24/25 Series:

- Simple to order at a solid price
- Easy selection and greater specification flexibility
- Meets or exceeds ANSI/BHMA Grade 1 testing standards
- Extruded aluminum body for tough performance in a range of applications
- Standard features include scratch-resistant surfaces and deadlocking built into the device

Available trim designs

Available finishes

¹ Available in late 2016

² Available on Dane, Avalon, Quantum, and Sutro lever designs only

About Allegion

Allegion (NYSE: ALLE) is a global pioneer in safety and security, with leading brands like CISA®, Interflex®, LCN®, Schlage®, SimonsVoss® and Von Duprin®. Focusing on security around the door and adjacent areas, Allegion produces a range of solutions for homes, businesses, schools and other institutions. Allegion is a $2 billion company, with products sold in almost 130 countries. For more, visit www.allegion.com.