LCN®

It's clear that the facility management workforce is changing. And with that brings challenges related to recruiting staff and training them—leaving you less time to focus on door hardware.

49
is the average age of a facility management professional[1]

50%
of the workforce is retiring in the next 5-15 years[2]

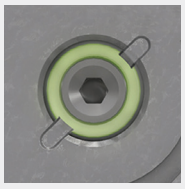

68%
of tradespeople have struggled to hire skilled workers[3]

So, we've taken our most popular door closer and outfitted it with features that simplify installation and maintenance.

Green Dial takes the guess work out of spring force adjustment

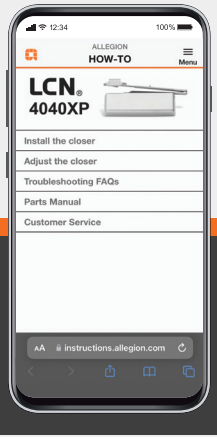

Patent-pending positive stop staking feature prevents screw from being backed out

Labeled regulation valves and corresponding diagram make adjustments faster

We've also added new digital resources, including interactive instructions, videos, FAQs and more.
